ST. LOUIS, 10; BROOKLYN, 5. After being the easiest kind of victims at the Polo Grounds and at Boston, the St. Louis players came to Washington Park yesterday and had no trouble in making the champion players came to Washington Park yesterday and had no trouble in making the champion Brooklyns look like a lot of amateurs when it came down to first-class scientific bail playing. Kitson started in to pitch for the Brooklyns but he was so easy that at the end of the second inning he was succeeded by Jack Dunn. The latter worried along until the sixth inning, when, with the bases filled and nobody out, keitser cracked out a three-bagger and sent everybody home, scoring himself a moment later on an out. That put the game well out of the Champions' reach and made many of the rooters go home to early supper.

Powell did not last long as pitcher for St. Louis. In the third inning with men on second and third and two out, Powell was ordered to the bench by Tebeau, and Young, the big 'rail splitter' was substituted. Young promptly struck out Sheckard, and from that point to the end of the game he was so effective that the Brooklyns gathered but two safe hits and could not score another run. Behind Young some startling plays were made, particularly by McGraw, who caught a terrific liner from Sheckard's bat in the ninth inning and deprived the latter of at least two bases.

In the second inning Kitson, while at the bat, put up a foul close to the grandstand. McGraw dashed over to catch the ball, but did not see where he was going. As a result he crashed into the grand stand, head first, and fell back unconscious. Umpire Hurst, Managers Hanlon and Tebeau and the players of both teams surrounded McGraw, who was "out" for several minutes. His head was cut open and he received a bruise near the left temple. But when he came to he got into the game without delay, and played fast ball at that.

DeMontreville played another beautiful game at short field in the absence of Dahlen, and Jones took several hard drives in deep centre. Both teams kicked at Umpire Hurst's decisions and the play was so delayed that it was nearly 6.30 o'clock when the spectators, or rather those of a crowd of 1,500 who remained, could go home. NEW YORK, 4; CINCINNATI, 2.

Arlie Latham made his appearance at the Polo Grounds yesterday, not as an umpire, but as a clown, for he acted as such throughout the game. He has been engaged by John T. Brush to act as a sort of a coach on the side lines, and between him and the "Well, well" man, who was standing at the ropes behind first base, the spectators became disgusted. The game, which was one of the most interesting played at the grounds this season, was marred by the noise both these individuals made and it was so bad at times that a strike or bail called by the umpire could not be heard.

That the New York club is not living up to the promise made earlier in the season was demonstrated vesterday. Several persons who received rain checks from the game postponed on last Monday presented them, but were refused admittance. It was understood that when checks were given out they would be good at any time, but it appears that they must be used at the next game. New York is the only city in the League where rain checks cannot be used at any time.

Both teams showed up in good form yesterday. Not once was there a voice raised to argue with the umpire. Mercer, who gave up on Wednesday after pitching two innings on account of a wet ball, was in the box again for the New Yorks, and he pitched a good, steady game throughout. He received excellent support. Warner's fine throwing to second was a feature. Hahn pitched well at times for the visitors, but was unsteady at critical stages. The score: CINCINNATI.

Rowdy Ball Playing at Toronto.

TORONTO, July 27.—Horton of Worcester gave to-day's game to Toronto in the ninth by handing out a base on balls which, with a sacrifice and out and a wild pitch, scored the winning fun. Horton had secured leave of absence and he was in a hurry to catch his train. He was accused of deliberately "throwing" the game and kittridge threatened to release him. On the way from the island Horton threw his shoes in the water and declared that he was through with baseball. In the fourth inning, Umpire Doescher called Lynch out at first when he was fairly safe and the player was, so no need that he rushed at him and catching the umpire off his balance pushed him to the Manager Skelly Complains.

Manager Skelly of the Skelly baseball team complains of bad treatment at the hands of the Cuban X Giants. Skelly says that he engaged the Giants to meet his club at his grounds in Brooklyn next Sunday afternoon, but declares that the noted colored nine has flunked and refuses to come to time. Skelly said has night:

"The manager of the Giants signed an agreement with me to play the Skellys next Sunday. Acting on this I went ahead and got a lot of printing and billed the exhibition all over Brooklyn. Imagine my surprise and chagrin when I recrived a despatch to day stating that the Giants would not play. I have since learned that the colored men have been engaged to play at the West New York Field Club on the same day the team agreed to play in Brooklyn. I think this was a mean and unsportsmanlike act. I do not care so much for the expense lineured, but I do not like to disappoint my patrons. The Loyola A. A. will meet the Skellys on Sunday instead. This team played my men a fast ten-inning game a few weeks ago."

Rublin Ready for Jeffries After Fits. Billy Madden, in answer to a query whether Gus Ruhlin would meet any one, especially Jim Jeffries, before the boxing law is a dead issue in this State, said yesterday to a reporter of THE SUN: "If Ruhlin trims Bob Fitzsimmons on Aug. 10 at the Garden, we will be ready to sign articles of agreement for a match three days later. Ruhlin is only too pleased to fight Jeffries and is glad to learn that the cham-pion's arm is getting along so nicely."

The reporter saw Ruhlin work at Bath Beach yesterday. The "Akron Glant" is certainly in condition and is a glutton for exercise. Ruhin condition and is a glutton for exercise. Rublin's quarters are in a gymnasium owned by Owen Zeigler which stands close to the water front. The place is small and those who put on the gloves with the big Ohio puglist had to do a lot of hustling to defend themselves. Rublin boxed with Matty Mathews and Charlie Goff and after some severe sparring he did not show any signs of distress. Jim Corbett visited Rublin yesterday afternoon, but did not box with him. Corbett thought Rublin looked well and that he was in perfect condition. Corbett donned the mitts with Charlie Goff and their exhibition was remarkably fast. The exchampion proved that he is still very clever.

Death of Vice-President Parker of the New York Cricket Association.

The death is announced of Arthur S. Parker. Vice-President of the New York Cricket Association. Mr Parker was identified with cricket in this vicinity for many years, and had been an in this vicinity for many years, and and been an officer of the Kearny, N. J. Cricket Club since its organization. He had been ailing since the season began, but attended several meetings of the Executive Committee of the association as delegate from his club. His loss is generally regretted, as he was courteous and pleasant to all, and made a host of friends, both at Newark, where he resided, and every place where his team played.

THE RAYON D'OR GELDING WINS AN EASY RACE AT BRIGHTON.

Little Profit to the Rank and File Waring Shows He Is a Stayer as Well as a Sprinter Stake Features on To-day's Programme Favorites made an almost complete sweep of the card at the Brighton Beach racetrack yes-terday, the only one that failed to run up to expectations being Petra II. in the selling race two-year-olds. Still it was by no means a profitable day for the casual backer as the odds were too short in most instances to benefit anybody but a plunger with either a fat roll or unlimited credit. The weather was delightful and the porous track had recovered nearly all the elasticity and speed for which it is becoming famous. There was a large and prompt attendance, as the picturesque feature came first in order. This was a steeplechase handicap over the full course which promised some exciting incidents as seven jumpers or alleged jumpers accepted the issue. The Chamblet pair, Ochiltree and Dave S., were played to odds-on with old Trillion next in demand at 13 to 5. The rank outsider, Fifield, made strong running for three-fourths of the route by which time the field was reduced to five, Spurs having refused early in the game while Al Reeves fell in his second attempt at the water jumps. Trillion piloted the field in the last balf mile, but Dave S. and Old Tank both outfooted him on the run home and Dave S. won by a neck. Old Tank beat Trillion ten lengths, Brazil easing up on the latter when he found

The second race resolved itself into a romp for the even money favorite Waring, who won by five lengths, with Lew Kraft half a length in front of Kamara. The time was remarkably fast and a new record seemed within Waring's grasp if Shaw had turned on the pressure. Of the dozen two-year-olds engaged in the third race Petra II. figured to have a cinch but more money was probably bet on Mauga. The Oliver filly rewarded her followers by tiptoeing her field from the start and winning cleverly by three lengths. Quiz II., Petra II. and Pigeon Post chased her home, and winning cleverly by three lengths. Quiz II., Petra II. and Pigeon Post chased her home, heads apart.

Firearm at last struck a spot to his liking in the sprint for all ages but was held safe in the ring at 1 to 3. Smoke kept him guessing for a couple of furlongs, but then Firearm drew away and won easily by two lengths. Smoke had a mortgage on second place as Sky Scraper ran about as fast as a boy going to school on a big baseball day. Billy Oliver and his numerous followers regarded the fifth race as a gift for Rhaido but when they got through playing him at 7 to 5 the bookies cheerfully offered a point better as the plunging division poured money in on Buffoon. The 30 to 1 candidate, Tourney, with "Long Shot" Henry in the saddle threatened to upset all calculations for half a mile but the rival choices then raced past and Buffoon won out by half a length after a desperate finish in which Turner "put it on "Spencer. RESULTS ON OTHER TRACKS.

CHICAGO. July 27.—The Hawthorne track was much improved to-day and the sport was correspondingly better, aithough it was a bad day for favorities. Blue Lick being the only first choice to win first money. The best race of the day was the last in which the good three-year-olds Florizar. The Unknown and Dissolute met. The race was always between these three. Dissolute and The Unknown raced as a team most of the way and this made it possible for Florizar to win. He avoided the fast pace during the early stage of the race and when he made his move half way down the stretch the other colts had nothing left and he won easily on the end. Turf Notes.

The harness races at Troy, which were to have been held on Aug. 7, 8 and 9, have been declared off.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—The Fair Grounds judges have recommended to the License Committee of the Turf Congress that Jockey Crowhurst's riding license be revoked and a conditional one relasued for his contract employer, G. C. Bennett only, at the expiration of which no license of any kind be issued to him for his unsatisfactory rides on Necklace, Guide Rock and Theory.

DETROIT, July 27.—The second day of the Highland Park meeting was marked by a senational incident which ended with the shooting of the old campaigner Chris Kringle. Chris acted badly at the post and led to the half, where, on being crowded, he attempted to kick the George Kratz horse that jostled him and in so doing disjointed his off hind leg. The result was so bad that he was shot directly after the race. Chris cost F. D. Weir, his owner, $3,500.

The feature of the tournament was the match between Hackett and Allen against R. D. and G. L. Wrenn. While the Wrenn brothers showed that they were by no means the equal of their opponents, yet they played a plucky game, and at one time it looked as if their persistent efforts night land them a victory. Good Sport at Kirk Park. Geed Sport at Kirk Park.

Syracuse, July 27.—There was rare sport at the third day's meeting of the Queen City Troiting Association at Kirk Park to-day. In the 2:30 trot Honeymoon, the favorite, won the first heat without a drive Baron Belt, who seemed to have more speed than any other horse in the race, captured the second heat casily. Oriana went out for the third heat and had it won when she made a break near the wire. Haron Belt finishing in front. It was evident now that Oriana could win and she captured the next three heats in a drive from Honeymoon. Sloppy Weather laid up the first heat in the 2:32 pace and then went for the second. Bessie Orr was too fast and beat Sloppy in a hot drive to the wire. The effort had killed Bessie Orr, for Sloppy Weather went on and won the next three heats and the race. THE EASTERN STALLIONS HAVE A HOT RACE AT CLEVELAND.

Son of Allerton Wins Second Heat in 2:0814 by Another Narrow Margin-Geers Saves the Money for Backers of Midway. CLEVELAND, July 27 .- The feature of to-day's ard at the Grand Circuit meeting was two bruising heats in the 2:10 trot between the Eastern stallions Gayton and Dare Devil, both with records of 208%. Dare Devil from the iven to the horses in this class at Detroit, was eavily played to win here. Gayton, the Eastview Farm candidate, was second choice. When old out in the auctions the starters were rated s follows: Dare Devil. $200: Gayton, $50: Pre eision. Who Is It and Charley Herr. $20, and Monterey, $25. This was the market a few hours before the race. When the horses came to the post the Village Farm stallion brought $100 to $40 for the field.

Gayton made a break in the first eighth of the first round, and Dare Devil won by a sulky length from Charley Herr, who had been the first round, and Dare Devil won by a sulky length from Charley Herr, who had been leading all the way, in 2.00%. In the second heat, after Charley Herr, who led again, with Dare Devil and Gayton close on to him, had been disposed of at the three-quarters in 1.36%, a battle roval took place between the two great stallions, both driven by master reliamen. It was head and head through the stretch, and the spectators were on their feet. McHenry managed in the last few strides to land the son of Allerton a short neck in front, in 2.38%.

Dare Devil was still even money against the field before the third heat and in some of the selling as good as $100 to $30 for the field. It was thought that he was the most reliable of the two and that Gayton was liable to break, but the horses acted just the reverse. Dare Devil made a break after they got the word, which, however, did not lose him much ground. Charley Herr and Gayton were in the lead, and at the half in 105 Geers had Dare Devil up. But the latter made another short "Jimmy" at the head of the stretch. Then he collared Gayton and the two began to fight it out again in the same manner as in the second heat. Gayton won again by the shortest kind of a markin in 2.00.

The other three events on the card were comparatively tame. Midway, from Ben Rennech's stable, who was the favorite at even money over a field of seven other pacers in the 2.23 class, lost the first three heats to Coddet and Pussay Willow. Then Rennich turned the gelding over to Geers, who saved the money for the smart set by winning the next three heats easy enough. Boralma, the crack Kentucky bred and Boston-owned four-year-old trotter, was a big favorite for the 2.12 trot. The starters sold as follows: Boralma, $200; Letah S. $80; Big Timber, $25; Phrase and Ellert, $15 each, and the field, consisting of Georgiana, Kate McCracken, Solon Grattan and Ed. Lock, 15. Boralma was unsteady in the second of seven hollow style, reducing his last week's Detroit record of 2:10% to 2:00% in the third heat and t forced the lavorite to the last record in the third heat.

Bonnie Direct, the great California four-year-old, was a prohibitive favorite over the field of 2:20 pacers. The young stallion won as he pleased, and the opening heat in 2:001/2 from a start in the second tier, seemed easy enough for him. Summaries: him. Summaries:

YACHTING.

The Racers in the Larchmont Regatta Suffer From Light Winds.

The Syce sailed eleven miles off Larchmont esterday in 4 hours, 49 minutes and 22 seconds. This tells what sort of weather the yachtsmen had to contend with in the regatta. There was every promise of a good breeze in the morning. The wind was from the northeast and it was quite fresh. In order to take every advantage of it the Regatta Committee got out to the starting line early and the yachts were sent off on schedule time. The wind then seemed to get tired and it petered out before the yachts could get over the line. Then slight puffs came from the southeast. It was a long beat over to the Hempstead mark for the larger boats, and then they were in the doldrums for nearly an hour. Just as the smaller boats reached the finishing line the wind came from the northeast and the larger boats were able then to make good time to the finish.

Courses 2 and 4 were selected. The big boats, that is, all except the raceabouts and knockabouts, went three miles southeast, then four miles northeast and then four miles west. After the preparatory signal had been given with the northeasterly wind the yachtsmen expected to have a run across the Sound, but the change to the southeast made it a beat. The wind was very light and nearly every yacht was handicapped. The Altair was first across seven minutes late, Syce was handicapped 14 minutes and 55 seconds and Sistae 21 minutes and 24 seconds. The Altair drifted well and Reached by All Coney Island Routes. and 24 seconds. The Altair drifted well and seemed to forge ahead, but the Syce soon caught her and the two kept close together, making short hitches to the west. The Sistae made one long tack across the Sound.

At the first mark the Syce had taken the lead and turned at 2:18:00. The Altair was very close, but it took her two minutes longer to get around. The Sistae was a long way back. Then they tried to reach the next mark, but there was no wind and their sails flapped idly against the spars. The Syce seemed now and then to get a little puff that would pass the Altair and she forged ahead, while the Altair drifted up the harbor. Shortly after 3 o'clock the wind came again from the northeast and then they made good progress. They had to make one hitch to fetch the outer mark and then reached home. The Syce won and the Altair was second.

In the next class the order at the start was: Effort, Veda, O'Shima, San and Departure. The Effort had a new mast in and every one hoped that she would get a chance to show her ability. The Veda gradually drew away from the others in the light wind and at the first mark had a big lead. She never was headed and won easily. On actual sailing time she had beaten the Altair, a much larger boat. The Departure and Kit sailed a special race, which was won by the Departure. Three boats started in the yawl class. The Albicore was the first across the line at the start and she won.

The raceabouts and knockabouts were and turned at 2:18:00. The Altair was very boats started in the yawl class. The Albicore was the first across the line at the start and she won.

The raceabouts and knockabouts were started at 11:45 o'clock and they went over on the starboard tack in this order: Raider, Colleen, Scamp, Sis, Snapper, Spindrift, Thelga, Ditto, Bobs and Mistral. All worked well over to the westward and got the benefit of the tide which was running to the east. At the first mark the Colleen had a slight lead, followed by the Raider, Scamp, Sis, Spindrift, Persimmon, Snapper. They had a run to the next mark, the wind in the middle of the Sound coming from the southwest. Colleen led around the mark, with the Raider and Scamp close up. Then they reached for the home mark with booms to starboard, but with half the distance covered the wind changed again and they were able to carry spinnakers.

The Persimmon found a nice little breeze and overshauled the leaders. Then they were becalmed again. Expecting the wind from the north, the Colleen and Scamp worked up toward the New York shore. The shift in the wind came, but the Regatta Committee had decided to stop the race. These two yachts lost by their move, the Persimmon getting across the line first, followed by the Snapper.

To-day there will be a regatta for all classes, and there are about ninety yachts entered. The contest for the raceabouts will be the last of a series for that class. Summary of the contests yesterday:
